Dear :

This responds to a letter dated May 13, 2010, and subsequent correspondence submitted on behalf of Company, requesting a ruling under § 1362(b)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code.

FACTS

Company incorporated in State on Date1. Company intended to file Form 2553, Election by a Small Business Corporation, effective Date2. Due to inadvertence, Company never filed the election. Company requests a ruling that it will be recognized as an S corporation effective Date2.

LAW AND ANALYSIS

Section 1362(a)(1) provides that, except as provided in § 1362(g), a small business corporation may elect, in accordance with the provisions of § 1362, to be an S corporation.

Section 1362(b)(1) provides that an election under § 1362(a) may be made by a small business corporation for any taxable year (A) at any time during the preceding taxable year, or (B) at any time during the taxable year and on or before the 15th day of the third month of the taxable year.

Section 1362(b)(3) provides that if (A) a small business corporation makes an election under § 1362(a) for any taxable year, and (B) the election is made after the 15th day of the third month of the taxable year and on or before the 15th day of the third month of the following taxable year, then the election is treated as made for the following taxable year.

Section 1362(b)(5) provides that if (A) an election under § 1362(a) is made for any taxable year (determined without regard to § 1362(b)(3)), after the date prescribed by § 1362(b) for making the election for the taxable year or no § 1362(a) election is made for any taxable year, and (B) the Secretary determines that there was reasonable cause for the failure to timely make the election, the Secretary may treat the election as timely made for the taxable year (and § 1362(b)(3) shall not apply).

CONCLUSION

Based solely on the information submitted and representations made, we conclude that Company has established reasonable cause for failing to make a timely S corporation election. Thus, we conclude that Company is eligible for relief under § 1362(b)(5). Accordingly, if Company makes an election to be an S corporation by filing with the appropriate service center a completed Form 2553, effective Date2, within 120 days following the date of this letter, then the election will be treated as timely made.
